RECORDS OF BAPTISMS, ST. NICHOLAS CHURCH
ZANESVILLE, OHIO, 1843 - 1847

Father Nicholas Gallinger was the first resident pastor of St. Nicholas' Church, Zanesville. Perhaps he named the church after his own personal patron saint.

As pastor he set up the first register of Baptisms, marriages, deaths, etc., for the new parish. He considered himself missionary priest for all the German Catholics of that and surrounding counties. Hence he wrote in the front of the book of Baptisms: "The German Missionary Territory of Zanesville."

Written in German Script, Father Gallinger's records frequently noted the name of the mission or station or town where the Baptism occurred. This is important in writing the history of some of those missions. Unfortunately, the Dominican Fathers, who were taking care of these places for some years before Father Gallinger's arrival in Zanesville, did not record the place of a Baptism if it was administered other than at their parish church, St. Thomas", in Zanesville.

It is important, therefore, to record here for the first time in English the records of Baptisms made by Father Gallinger from 1843 to 1847.

FIRST WEDDINGS IN THE CATHEDRAL

The certificate shown on the previous page is for the marriage of the first couple to be married at a Nuptial Mass in St. Joseph's Cathedral. Bishop Rosecrans, first Bishop of Columbus, officiated and signed the picturesque certificate.

Marriage records at the Cathedral indicate that there was a previous wedding; but it is makred as "mixed". In those days mixed marriages, or marriages between a Catholic and a non-Catholic, did not take place in the church.

The second recording is that of John Mangan and Annie Clifford, with the word "Banns" placed at the end of the record. It is written under the year 1872, although the certificate clearly states that the wedding occurred on Feb. 25, 1873. No further information is given in the book of marriage records at the Cathedral.

The Certificate reads as follows: "This certifies that John Mangan, of the City of Columbus, State of Ohio, and Miss Annie Clifford, of the city of Columbus, State of Ohio, were united in Holy Matrimony by me according to the Ordinance of God and the Laws of the State of Ohio at Columbus on the 25th day of February in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three. Witnesses: Patrick Hogan, Grace Mullen. [Signed by] SYLVESTER H. ROSECRANS, Bishop of Columbus."

Mrs. Annie Clifford Mangan died in Columbus March 10, 1909; her husband, John Mangan, died March 25, 1820. They were the parents of seven children: Blanche (married John Burns); Aloysius (married Rose Waterman); Katherine (married Leo White); Nina (married Charles Brashear); Alice (married George Clum); Grace (married George Pierce), and John C. (married Adah Gease.)

Four grandchildren of the that early Cathedral bride and groom live in Columbus. They are Mrs. Jean Oberting, of Nazareth Towers, proud possessor of the Certificate; her sister, Mrs. Nina Wolf, Groveport, daughters of Catharine Mangan and Leo White; and George and Miss Peggy Pierce, children of Grace Clifford and George Pierce.

Note: The third marriage recorded at the Cathedral is that of John Welch and Julia Clifford. It occurred on June 16, 1873. But the grandchildren of Annie Ckifford do not know that their grandmother was related to Julia Clifford.
